Respected Sir,

Are you looking for a Java Developer who can make an immediate impact at your company ? Look no more – I am the Java Developer you have been searching for.

As a Graduate of Computer Science & Engineering and having good experience in various projects, I am confident that I can add value to your team by contributing my full effort. From day one, I will work with my full effort & dedication for the company.

But don't take my words for it – my achievements justify it. Throughout my academic years, I have made various Java based Projects as a team head. These accomplishments demonstrate my ability to JAVA Development, and I am excited to bring the same to your organization.

What sets me apart from other candidates is my unique combination of dedication, hard-working and consistency. I am confident that my skills will be the valuable and make a positive impact on your team.

In closing, I am excited to join your company and contribute my skills to its success. Thankyou for considering my application, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Lakshya Rana
